The San Antonio Conservation Society is sponsoring a presentation "OST100 Roadshow" about the history of the Old Spanish Trail, the country's southern transcontinental highway, at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday at the River House, behind Steves Homestead, 509 King William. Refreshments will be served at 5 p.m.

The chairwomen of the Old Spanish Trail Centennial Celebration Association, Charlotte Kahl and Marianna Jones, will present the free 30-minute show, which will include photos, documents and maps.
